PENTECOST

Today we celebrate the birthday of the Church. “As the Father sent me, so I send you.” The commissioning is given together with a gift, the gift of the Holy Spirit. The faith we cherish today is a gift of the same Spirit. If we really cherish it, we cannot but pass it on. The Apostles did this task not as a burden but with joy. The innumerable volunteers in the different ministries of the Church are the manifestations of the movement of the same Spirit. It has to be enkindled from the moment we are confirmed and nourished through other sacraments. The movement of the Spirit becomes possible only when one recognises the value of it. Any gift unwrapped, unused does not serve the purpose of the giver. Jesus gave His own Spirit as a gift to us with love. Even though we received the Holy Spirit individually, the power is manifested when we come together as a community of gifted people to witness Christ. Come Holy Spirit! Fill the hearts of the hearts of Your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of Your love!!
